INTERNSHIP LOG

Name: PASAND KHAN_____ Roll No: 2K24/ENG/

Day	Date	Activities Performed	Skills Developed	Hours Logged	Supervisor Signature
1	16/09/2026	Grade 7: self-introductions using real-world examples and an interactive group chart-making activity. Grade 8: adapted the same approach for a similarly struggling class.	Spotting disengagement early; leading with concrete examples; bridging gaps for beginner learners; hooking student interest with relatable topics.	School/lessons: 5.5 hours Planning/checking: 1 Total: 6.5 hours
2	18/09/2026	Grade 7: discussion on the importance of English and the four language skills, including a student-led presentation. Introduced grammar, vocabulary and pronunciation, followed by a reading-and-pronunciation activity.	Re-engaging a class with a reframed introduction; fostering student-led discussion; introducing grammar, vocabulary and pronunciation; using a reading activity for diagnostic assessment.	School/lessons: 4.5 hours Planning/checking: 1.5 Total: 6 hours
3	23/09/2026	Grade 7 and Grade 8: a 'Running Dictation' literacy activity using wall-posted narrative passages built around key verb tenses and moral values. Concluded with a group discussion on the story's moral.	Running a movement-based literacy activity; assessing task-based learning outcomes; using individualized instruction for diverse learners; facilitating reflective group discussion.	School/lessons: 5.5 hours Planning/checking:2 Total: 7.5 hours
4	25/09/2026	Class 8 and Class 9: a 15-question test (5 subjective, 10 objective) on language skills and their practical areas, followed by assessment of results.	Designing and administering a subjective/objective test; assessing comprehension through evaluation; shifting toward a learner-centered teaching approach.	School/lessons: 4.5 hours Planning/checking:2 Total: 6.5 hours
5	30/09/2026	Grade 9 and Grade 10: an English for Academic Purposes (EAP) session, framing English as a functional tool for academic problem-solving, vocabulary building and higher education.	Teaching English for Academic Purposes (EAP); framing language as a functional academic tool; planning presentation-based learning activities.	School/lessons: 5.5 hours Planning/checking:1 Total: 6.5 hours
6	02/10/2026	Grade 9 and Grade 10: a grammar lesson on lexical formation and affixation, including the structural differences between dependent and independent morphemes, taught through practical examples.	Teaching lexical formation and affixation; explaining dependent/independent morphemes; building vocabulary awareness through practical examples.	School/lessons: 4.5 hours Planning/checking:1.5 Total: 6 hours
7	07/10/2026	Grade 8, 9 and 10: present simple and present continuous tenses, building on the verb 'to be' already covered, linked to bound/free morphemes and inflections (-s, -es, -ed).	Teaching present simple and present continuous tenses; linking grammar to bound/free morpheme structure; relating new topics to prior lessons for engagement.	School/lessons: 5.5 hours Planning/checking: 1 Total: 6.5 hours

Day	Date	Activities Performed	Skills Developed	Hours Logged	Supervisor Signature
8	09/10/2026	Micro-Teaching Method (MTM) activity: students formed groups of four to prepare and deliver a strict 5-minute presentation on language skills, language areas or lexical processes.	Applying the Micro-Teaching Method (MTM); facilitating group-based presentations; building student confidence through peer-led tasks.	School/lessons: 4.5 hours Planning/checking:1.5 Total: 6 hours
9	14/10/2026	Grade 9 and Matric: introduced narration using fundamental questions and narrative storytelling techniques, followed by a detailed discussion of the specific rules.	Introducing narration and reported speech; using storytelling to teach a new grammar concept; evaluating comprehension through guided questioning.	School/lessons: 5.5 hours Planning/checking: 1 Total: 6.5 hours
10	16/10/2026	1st-year (7th semester) and Grade 12: discussion on language and its correlation with culture, including an exchange on the Dhatki language and other dialects shared by students.	Leading a discussion on language and culture; managing multicultural/multilingual classroom discussion; engaging senior-level students on an abstract topic.	School/lessons: 4.5 hours Planning/checking: 1 Total: 5.5 hours
Total logged hours across 10 entries				65 hours

Supervisor Signature: _____